

CONSUMER HEALTH DATA PRIVACY POLICY

Effective Date and Last Date Updated: January 22, 2025

This Consumer Health Data Privacy Policy (this "Policy") is for people who are residents of the State of Nevada, Washington State (or any other state that has an applicable state consumer health privacy law) and has any of their Consumer Health Data collected.

This Policy explains how Successfulmatch.com, Inc., a Delaware corporation, ("Company", "we", or "us") collects, uses, and discloses personal information of any [user/ /customer] ("User", "Customer", "you", or "your") that may be considered "Consumer Health Data" under the Washington My Health My Data Act, the Nevada Health Privacy Act, and/or other applicable state consumer health privacy laws.

Any word or phrase containing capitalized words not defined in this Policy is presumed to be defined in the Company's Privacy Policy (the "Privacy Policy"). Here is a link to the Privacy Policy which you can download: <https://www.seniormatch.com/privacyPolicy>.

"Consumer Health Data" is broadly defined in this Policy, to mean personal information that is linked or can be reasonably linked to an individual and that identifies past, present or future physical or mental health status. Consumer Health Data does not include, among other things, data that cannot reasonably be used to infer information about, or otherwise be linked to, an identified or identifiable individual, or a device linked to such an individual.

How We Collect, Use, and Disclose Consumer Health Data

To provide the products or features offered by Company, we collect and process information about you, including information that may be considered Consumer Health Data. The best way to learn about the types of information we collect and how we use them is to review Company's Privacy Policy.
